Andrea Musicant brings over two decades of strategic legal insight to complex workplace challenges and disputes, advising and protecting employers across government, healthcare, and non-profit industries.

Andrea's comprehensive, client-centered approach focuses on strategic, results-oriented legal solutions that mitigate risks and strengthen the workplaces of top California employers. She counsels all types of labor and employment matters and defends employers in state and federal courts. She also has a depth of experience in commercial litigation, real-property disputes, and intellectual property that enhances her ability to fully support the businesses she serves.

Providing her clients with proactive and thoughtful legal counsel, Andrea has a unique ability to present complicated information to diverse audiences. She designs sexual harassment training programs, revises personnel handbooks, and develops preventative strategies that exemplify her forward-looking approach. She is known for creative and responsive solutions customized to the individual business needs of her clients.

Andrea is also deeply connected to the San Diego region, highlighted by her volunteer work with Casa Cornelia Law Center, her leadership within Lawyers Club of San Diego, and being named as one of San Diego Metro Magazine's 40 under 40 Top Professionals.

In her role at Meyers Nave, Andrea embodies a harmonious blend of legal prowess, strategic business insight, and deep commitment to client service. She represents the firm's core values of commitment to excellence, results, and true partnership, making her an invaluable asset to her clients and the firm.
